Questions for discussion

- What are the experimental capabilities (thresholds, resolution, efficiency, etc.) ?

- How well can event classes be isolated?

- How can these experimental handles be used to improve oscillation analyses?

- Is there complementary information between experiments?