

Handling, Storage, & Disposal of Neutrino Beam Components at Fermilab

Wednesday, 6 June 2018 16:50 (20 minutes)

Continued operation of Fermilab target facilities yields a waste stream of radioactive components at the end of their usable life. These components must be removed, stored, and disposed of in an environmentally sound and legally compliant manner. Methods for achieving this at Fermilab are discussed.

Primary author: Mr CROWLEY, Cory (Fermi National Accelerator Lab)

Presenter: Mr CROWLEY, Cory (Fermi National Accelerator Lab)

Session Classification: Session 5-Target Facility Challenges

Track Classification: 5-Target Facility Challenges