FSPA Job Board

FSPA Job Board is a website designed for students and postdocs in High Energy Physics to exchange potential job information. These jobs do not necessarily have to be available. The aim is to catalogue information on types of careers/jobs that high energy physicists can go into. Jobs in industry and academia are all welcome. The summary will be updated every month. By clicking the summary icon on the top right of the web page, you can check the summary of all jobs.

EDI 101: An Introduction to Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion

by Charee Mosby-Holloway
Director of Student D&I, Columbia College Chicago

Abstract:

Organizational diversity efforts can be challenging for many reasons. The fear of saying or doing the wrong thing can be a barrier to engaging in meaningful dialogue around diversity and creating safe, welcoming work spaces. This interactive presentation will provide participants with a common vocabulary for engaging across difference, as well as cover introductory concepts related to diversity and inclusion.
