

Welcome to Neutrino 2020 Week 2

XXIX International Conference on Neutrino Physics and Astrophysics

Monday 22 June 2020 to Thursday 2 July 2020

Organizing Committee Co-Chairs: S. Brice, M. L. Marshak, G. Zeller

The Conference

- There are multiple ways to experience Neutrino 2020
  - Talks: The Neutrino conference series is, by tradition, all plenary. Instructions on how to connect are emailed to registrants.
  - Posters: Browse more than 500 posters and videos.
  - Virtual Reality: Get immersed in a virtual poster session, interact with poster presenters, visit our social rooms, and enjoy some virtual sight-seeing.
  - Slack: Post questions and responses and participate in discussions. Access multiple channels at neutrino2020.slack.com
  - After the Conference:
    - Neutrino 2020 website will remain available
    - Conference Proceedings will be archived to Zenodo
    - List of Participants will be posted on the Conference website
    - Participants will be asked for feedback on Conference organization to inform organizers of future conferences

Online Conference Format

- Asking speaker questions
  - During a talk use the Q&A box at the bottom of your ZOOM screen. Please treat this like you would asking a question during an in-person conference
  - Before and after a talk use the Neutrino 2020 slack channel
- ~570 posters are available via link from the Conference Home Page
  - Many posters are accompanied by 2 minute videos
  - They are also available to view in Neutrino 2020 Virtual Reality throughout the conference
  - During the 4 poster sessions the authors are encouraged to be with their VR posters for questions and discussion
  - Please use the link next to the poster being viewed in the poster webpage to take part in judging the posters for the competition
  - Link to Virtual Reality

Code of Conduct

Just as with an in-person conference, participants of the online Neutrino 2020 conference will conduct themselves in a professional manner that is welcoming to all and free from any form of discrimination, harassment, bullying, or retaliation. Participants will treat each other with respect and consideration to create a collegial, inclusive, and professional environment. Participants will avoid any inappropriate actions or statements based on individual characteristics of any kind. Disruptive behavior or harassment of any kind will not be tolerated. Harassment includes but is not limited to inappropriate or intimidating behavior or language, unwelcome jokes or comments, unwanted attention, and stalking. Participants will abide by this code in all virtual and professional activities associated with the conference. In addition, participants in the online conference will also be required to share their full identity (first and last names) in all online platforms and virtual environments connected to the conference. Sanctions for violations of this code may range from verbal warning, to ejection from the online conference, to notifying appropriate authorities, at the discretion of the organizers.

Code of Conduct applies to all aspects of the Conference including Slack. If you have witnessed or experienced a violation of this Code of Conduct, you can submit an online report.

Reports can be sent anonymously. Such reports will be viewable only by the Neutrino 2020 conference Co-Chairs: Steve Brice, Marvin Marshak, and Sam Zeller. You are also welcome to send a direct email to any or all of the three Co-Chairs.
