

SEC Questions

(from Diana Parno)

- Do you anticipate that you will still be involved in physics research 10 years from now?
- What is the primary obstacle that might stop you from being involved in physics research 10 years from now? (Possible answer choices, with multiple possible selections): retirement; interested in something else; difficulty of finding positions; insufficient funding; not enjoying the work; hard to find/join collaborations; personal concerns; other _____)
- What general skills have you been able to develop over your scientific training? (Select all that apply: computational, theory, hardware, data analysis, other _____)
- Have you wanted to pursue one of the above, but you weren't able to find any opportunity?