

What can I do for my child?

Fermilab Public Events

Calendar of public events

- <http://news.fnal.gov/newsroom/public-events/>

Wonders of Science Show

- March 19, 2017, 1:00 - 2:00 PM, $5/person
- http://eddata.fnal.gov/lasso/program_search/show_specialID_new.lasso?event_id=106
- “Award winning high school chemistry teachers will present a fast-paced series of demonstrations on chemical and physical phenomena that will involve your young scientists mentally and, at times, physically!”

Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics Career Expo

- April 19, 2017, 5:30 – 8:30 PM
- <https://ed.fnal.gov/programs/careerfair/>
- Meet scientists, engineers, & technicians
- Ask career questions of the experts
- Ask experts about educational pathways leading to specific careers
- Discuss career fields with professional association representatives
- Attend panel discussions on career areas
- Access career expo resources

Fermilab Open House: Saturday September 23

- Expecting thousands of people to visit Fermilab this day.

My Brother's Keeper

- <https://obamawhitehouse.archives.gov/my-brothers-keeper>
- Targets minorities
- End of March
- Break-out sessions, panels, demos, ...

Ask a Scientist

- First Sunday of every month
- <https://ed.fnal.gov/programs/tours/ask-a-scientist.shtml>
- Free lecture
- Talk to scientists
- Tour Fermilab

Paid internships

- TARGET
 - For high school students
 - 6-8 weeks
- SIST
 - For undergraduate students
 - 12 weeks
- <http://diversity.fnal.gov>