

Welcome

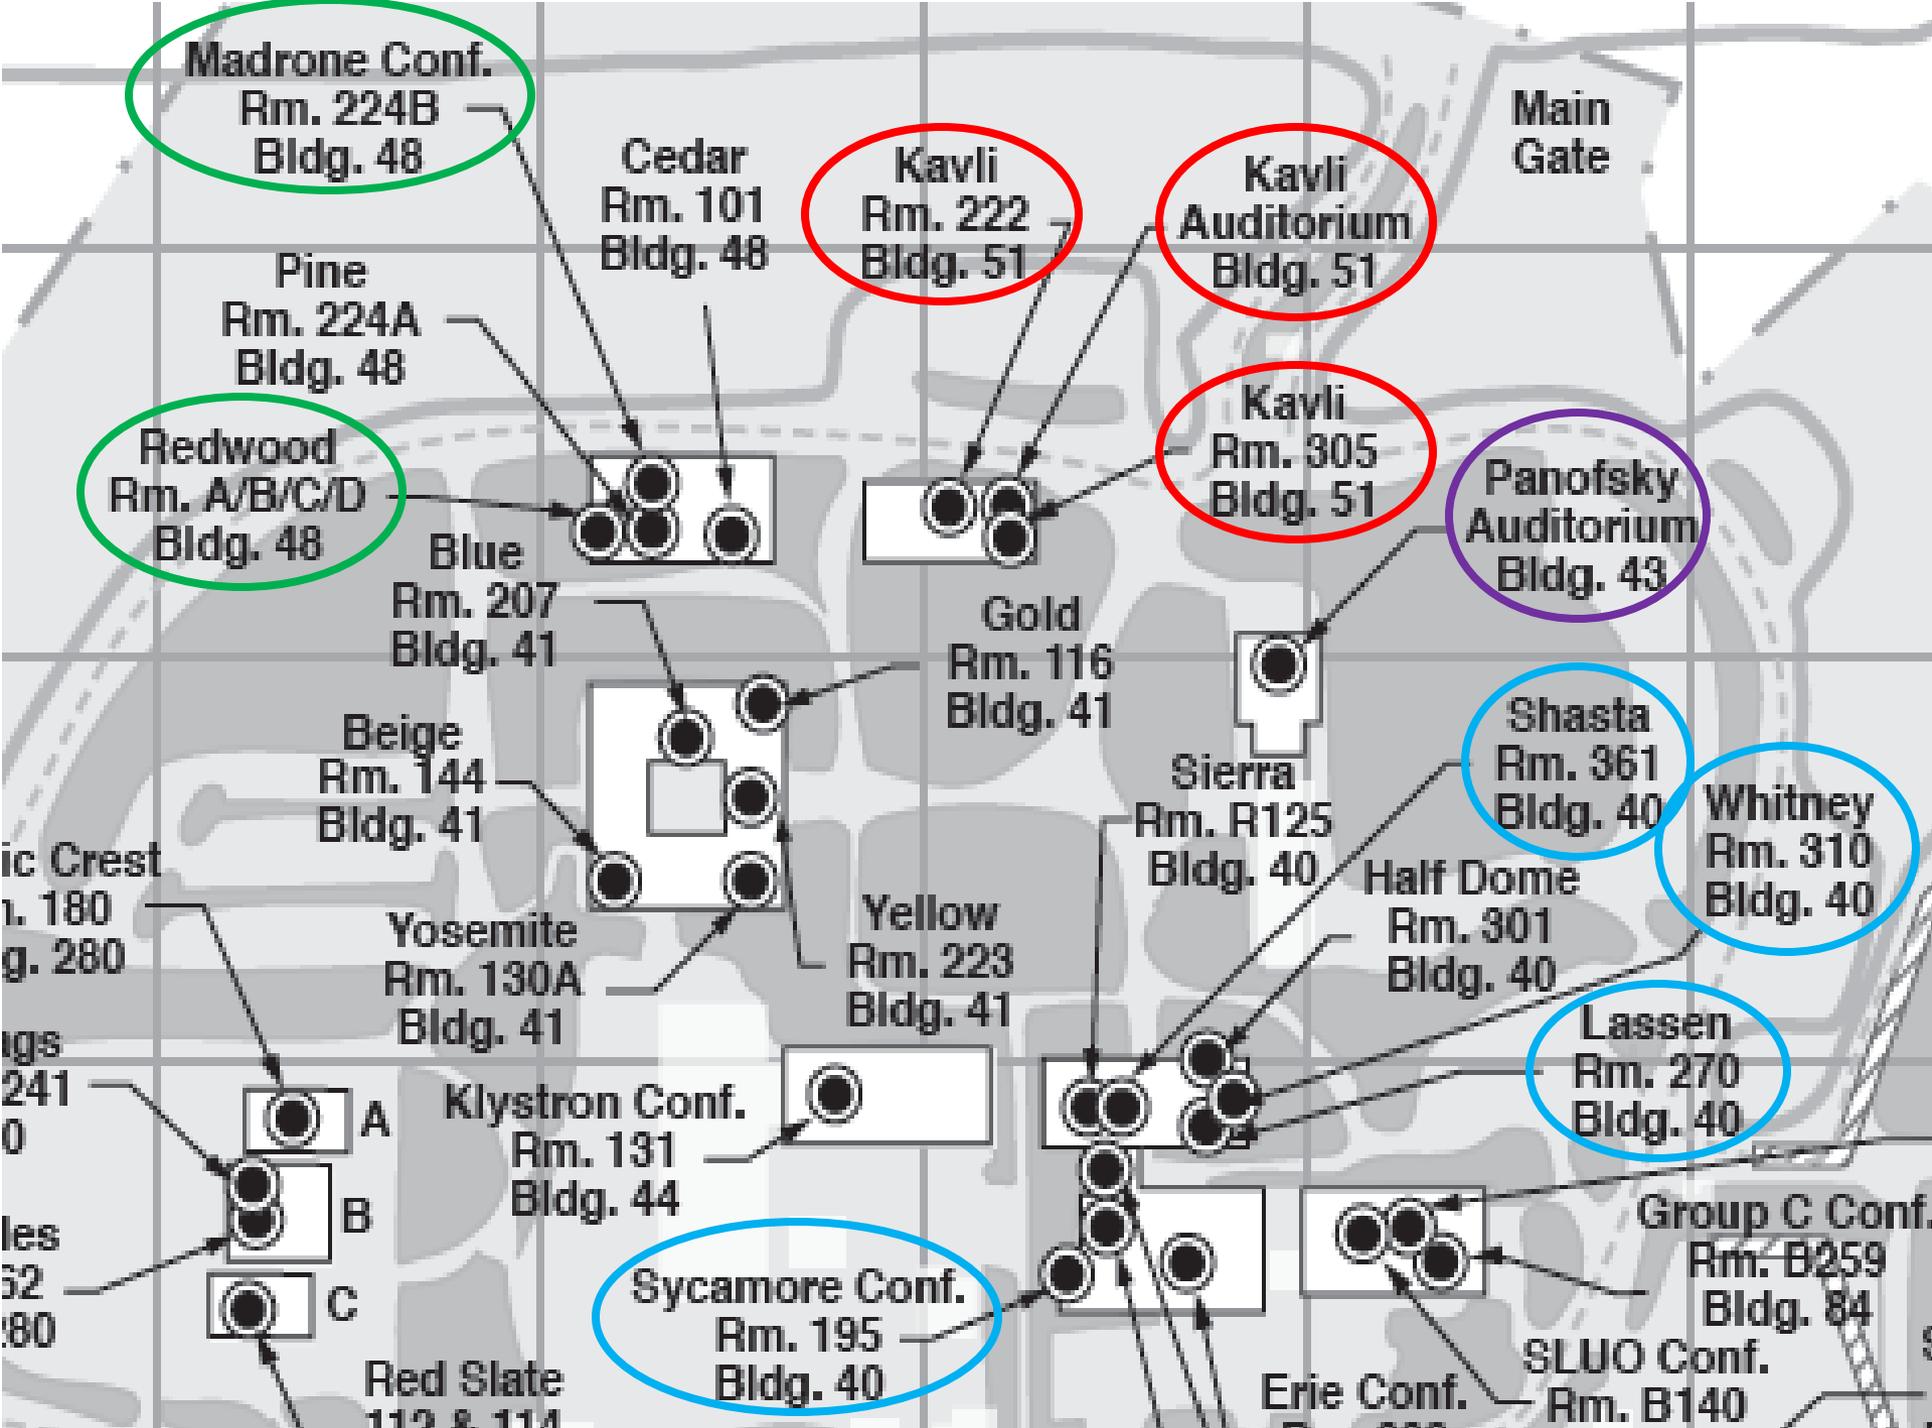

- Overwhelming response to this workshop!
 - Targeted attendance was 175 +/- 50
 - Registration for this week's events exceeds 325
 - An additional 100 people are registered for the neutrino workshop being held Wednesday/Thursday
- We will do our best to deal with logistical issues
 - Overflow seating in Kavli auditorium for plenary sessions
 - We may need to adjust parallel session room assignments and/or set up overflow seating to fit within the capacities of our meeting rooms

Site Access and Parking

- Entrance gate has list of attendees
 - Key words: attending Cosmic Frontier Workshop, going to Panofsky Auditorium
- Limited parking available on site
- Please help us by:
 - Carpooling
 - Taking the campus Marguerite shuttle
 - Maximizing road-side parking along the loop road
- Please park safely, keeping your car well out of the traffic lane

Workshop Agenda

- The workshop agenda and a number of useful links are located on the Fermilab Indico server <https://indico.fnal.gov/conferenceDisplay.py?confId=6199>
 - Linked from the conference web site
 - Speakers: please upload your talk to the agenda
 - Updates to the agenda will be posted online
 - Current agenda will also be posted each morning in Panofsky Lobby
- ReadyTalk phone conferencing of all sessions
- All rooms should have wireless internet access via the SLAC visitor network

Breaks

- Breaks following Plenary Sessions will be in the breezeway outside Panofsky Auditorium
- Breaks following Parallel Sessions will be setup in 3 locations:
 - Panofsky Auditorium breezeway
 - Kavli Auditorium lobby
 - Lobby near Redwood meeting rooms

Lunch & Dinner

- If you ordered a Box Lunch during registration, you should have a voucher that can be exchanged for lunch in the Panofsky Auditorium breezeway
- Other nearby options:
 - Harvest Café (next to Panofsky Auditorium)
 - Lunch truck (between Kavli and Panofsky, cash only)
 - Quadrus Café (across the street and up the hill)
 - Eric's Gourmet (Sharon Heights shopping Center)
- Lunch seating available inside/outside Harvest Café, ROB patio, picnic tables in Kavli redwoods, Kavli 2nd floor lobby, and the Cosmic Frontier meeting rooms
- List of restaurant suggestions online and in the lobby