

The Mu2e Experiment at Fermilab

Monday, 9 June 2014 15:30 (20 minutes)

The mu2e experiment at Fermilab will search for interesting physics by looking for an incredibly rare phenomenon: a muon -which is basically an electron's fatter cousin- converting, in a Cinderella-like transformation, into its more slender and well-known relative, the electron.

Primary author: Dr ORDUNA, Jesus (Rice University)

Presenter: Dr ORDUNA, Jesus (Rice University)

Session Classification: Session 3